RELIGIOUS INSTITUTIONS

An insurance program tailored to the specific needs of religious institutions.

Founded in 1898, Racine & Chamberland is one of the oldest P&C insurance firms in Quebec. And it's that longstanding success that has made Racine & Chamberland one of the most respected firms in the industry.

Our dedicated religious institution insurance team knows how to assist you and answer your questions. They will quickly provide you with a quote tailored to your needs.

Racine & Chamberland, in collaboration with Ecclesiastical Insurance, offers a product designed exclusively for religious institutions.

The program comes with a complete range of coverage for most movable and immovable property as well as for risks associated with commercial civil liability and loss of income. Certain optional coverage is also available.

Racine & Chamberland has over 100 years of experience serving the community's insurance needs.
